

Colborne Art Gallery hosts exhibition

 Print this Page

November 18, 2010

NORTHUMBERLAND -- The Colborne Art Gallery is set to host a festive exhibition.

'All Things Bright and Beautiful' opens Saturday, Nov. 20. The show is a celebration of winter and the festive season. Gallery artists will be exhibiting and selling art work of all sizes and price ranges, varying from cards and ornaments to paintings.

As a special fundraiser this year, tiny 3" x 3" canvasses have been transformed by gallery artists into one-of-a-kind artworks. They will be available for sale on the day of the opening and all proceeds will go towards the gallery.

The opening reception is on Saturday, Nov. 20 from 2-4 p.m. Visitors can enjoy hot cider and other treats while visiting with the artists, and experiencing the exhibited creations.

Gallery hours during the exhibition are Thursday through Sunday, noon to 5 p.m. The exhibition closes on Sunday, Dec. 19.

The Colborne Art Gallery is at 51 King Street in the historic Registry Office building. For more information call 905-355-1798 or visit www.thecolborneartgallery.ca.

Submitted photo

NORTHUMBERLAND -- The Colborne Art Gallery will host its annual All Things Bright and Beautiful exhibition beginning Saturday, Nov. 20. Gallery members Anne Wilson and Irene Osborne display some of the mini canvases they have contributed.